

HOW TO DONATE RETAILER'S SURPLUS FOOD TO REDISTRIBUTION CHARITIES

	What food can they take:	They can't take:	How it works:	How to arrange a donation:
HAMMERSMITH AND FULHAM FOODBANK	Non-perishable, in-date food (e.g. canned foods, ambient meals)	No bread, fresh fruit or veg, or foods that require refrigeration (e.g. milk, sandwiches, chilled meals).	The food business delivers excess food to the warehouse at Gliddon Road, Barons Court, W14 9BH. This is then made into nutritious food parcels distributed free to local people in need with food parcel vouchers. Overseen by the Trussell Trust. http://www.hammersmithfulham.foodbank.org.uk	0207 731 3693 / 07455 623907 info@hammersmithfulham.foodbank.org.uk or Donate food Hammersmith and Fulham Foodbank
FARESHARE / THE FELIX PROJECT	All kinds of fresh, frozen, ambient and chilled foods, including retailer branded foods. Stock with a use-by date of more than 48 hours life on receipt. Food past its BBE, except chilled food (see right).	No Alcohol. No food that's passed its use-by date. No chilled food (including eggs) past its best before date. No food that's already been cooked or prepared.	FareShare is designed to take large volumes of surplus food from the food industry. They then divert it to almost 9,500 charities across the UK – from domestic violence refuges and breakfast clubs for children, to homeless hostels, community cafes and lunch clubs for older people. Warehouse is at The Felix Project in Deptford, SE8. Can take food at short notice.	Phone 020 7064 8911 to arrange. Or register by completing the form at: Give food - FareShare
